

The do not call law is the best thing that ever happened. It would be a disgrace to remove it. I also own a business and wish it could apply to those numbers too. It is amazing at how much time is wasted answering the phones for telemarketers. Before removing, it should be considered that most if not all New Jersey residents do not want telemarketers calling their homes.